

THURSDAY, AUGUST 12
8 A.M. - 2 P.M.
WILL ROGERS MEMORIAL CENTER
FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

The 6th Annual Tarrant County Back to School Roundup presented by Walmart is scheduled for Thursday, August 12 from 8 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth. The Roundup is an impressive collaborative effort between Tarrant County, the county's 20 school districts, the City of Fort Worth, public health department, state agencies, non-profit organizations, corporations and volunteers.

HERE'S WHAT'S PLANNED IN 2010:

- Back to School Roundup will provide free school supplies to approximately 10,000 economically disadvantaged students in grades pre kindergarten through 12
- Free haircuts will be provided to schoolchildren
- Free dental screenings, fluoride applications, free toothbrushes and toothpaste for students
- Free immunizations for schoolchildren
- Free health screenings and services for both schoolchildren and their families
- A family friendly event, the Roundup will feature musical entertainment, kids activities, games and interactive demonstrations and booths
- Community resource booths at the Roundup will offer information on such topics as literacy, parenting, nutrition, financial literacy, fire safety, and social services

WHO QUALIFIES TO RECEIVE FREE SCHOOL SUPPLIES AT THE ROUNDUP?

Recipients of free school supplies must be public school children from the ages of 4 – 18 who reside in Tarrant County, and whose families meet the 2010 Federal Poverty Income Guidelines

EXPECTED ATTENDANCE: 30,000
