Purpose

The Athletic Hall of Honor was established to recognize members of the Birdville Independent School District's family who have distinguished themselves as outstanding contributors to Birdville athletics, and possibly beyond, instilling a continuing commitment to and the promotion of the beliefs that BISD values.

Criteria for Athlete

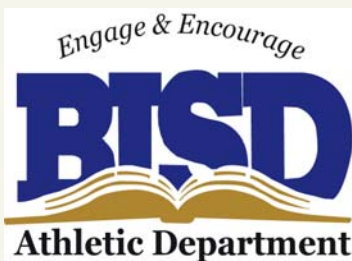

1. Athletic participation at one of our three high schools in Birdville ISD.
2. Must have been out of high school for at least 5 years.
3. While athletic achievement is of prime importance, attainment of Birdville ISD virtues during high school and post high school years will be taken into consideration.
4. Other factors to consider: individual and team accomplishments and balance among sports and time periods.
5. Nominees in the Hall of Honor shall have an equal opportunity for admission without discrimination based on their race, creed, sex, marital status, national origin, ability, or disability.

Criteria for Coach

1. Must have made a significant contribution to Birdville ISD athletics and have implemented the BISD beliefs in their life.
2. Must have been out of coaching in BISD for at least 5 years.
3. Other factors to consider: longevity, honors, peer recognition, balance among sports, and team accomplishments.
4. Nominees in the Hall of Honor shall have an equal opportunity for admission without discrimination based on their race, creed, sex, marital status, national origin, ability, or disability.

Criteria for Team

1. Must have made a significant contribution to Birdville ISD athletics.
2. Must have been out of high school for at least 5 years.
3. Nominees in the Hall of Honor shall have an equal opportunity for admission without discrimination based on their race, creed, sex, marital status, national origin, ability, or disability.
