

BIRDVILLE INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Red Ribbon Activities

October 25 –October 31, 2014

Theme: “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free.”

- 101 Birdville Elementary Laurie Hindman, Contact Person

Monday “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” – Students and staff are encouraged to wear red. Students will receive red ribbons to wear all week with the theme “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” Student leaders will decorate the school. Announcements will be made on healthy ways to take care of yourself and love yourself.

Tuesday “My Future Is Bright. No Drugs In Sight!” – Students and staff are invited to wear bright colored clothes. Students will receive a dog tag provided by the PTA. Announcements will be made on healthy ways to take care of yourself and love yourself.

Wednesday “Exercise Your Right To Be Drug Free!” - Students and staff may wear sweats or athletic clothes to school today. Announcements will be made on healthy ways to take care of yourself and love yourself.

Thursday “Stay In The Game And Play Drug Free!” - Students and staff may wear their favorite team’s jersey or shirt. This includes BES spirit shirts. Announcements will be made on healthy ways to take care of yourself and love yourself.

Friday “Show Good Character By Being Drug Free!” – Students and staff may dress as their favorite storybook character. Announcements will be made on healthy ways to take care of yourself and love yourself. Also, drug education lessons will be presented every Friday in October.

- 102 David E. Smith Elementary Paula Keller, Contact Person

Monday "You Won't See Me Doing Drugs!" - Students and staff are invited to wear camouflage clothing or all black. Students and staff will receive their red ribbons with the theme “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” to wear all week.

Tuesday "Drugs Are Spooky!" – Students and staff may wear orange and black or Halloween shirts.

Wednesday “We Are RED-DY To Say No To Drugs!” – Students and staff are encouraged to wear red from head to toe.

Thursday "Dreaming Of A Drug Free World!" - Students and staff may wear school-appropriate pajamas and slippers.

Friday "Your Future Is Bright, So Keep Your Good Character And Don't Do Drugs!"
PK-2nd may wear book character’s clothing and all 3rd-5th may wear bright colors to go along with their P.E. glow sticks.

- 103 W.T. Francisco Elementary Michelle Shoulders, Contact Person

Monday “Pledge To Be Drug Free!” – Students and staff will receive red ribbons with the theme “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” to wear all week. Drug Free facts will be given during morning announcements by Leadership Students. Students that dress up all 4 days will be entered into a raffle. A pledge and a banner will be signed by each student pledging to remain drug free.

Tuesday “We Are Red’y To Say No To Drugs!” - Students and staff may wear red clothing to show their “Red Ribbon Week” support.

Wednesday “We Are Dreaming Of Staying Drug Free!” – Students and staff may wear school-appropriate pajamas and slippers to school.

Thursday “We Can’t Disguise That We Are Drug Free!” - Students and staff may wear moustaches and glasses or moustache-themed items to school.

Friday “I’m Too Smart To Start!” - Students and staff may wear a non-scary “story book” or “book parade” costume for the day.

104	Jack C. Binion Elementary	Tammy Brown, Contact Person
Monday	Decoration Day/"Bobcats Team Up Against Drugs!" - Students and staff may wear their favorite team jersey, uniform or colors. Theme will be presented during morning announcements. Students will vote on how many red items are in the jar. Leadership team will spell drug free messages on fence with cups. Leadership Team will put ribbons on trees and fences. Students who participate all week will receive a "prize" at the end of the week. All classes will make a class banner out of butcher paper and write "We Love Our Lives." Students will add pictures and hang banner in the hall. All students will be given a red ribbon provided by the district with the drug free message "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!"
Tuesday	Reach Out Day/"Bobcats Join The Fight Against Drugs!"/Camouflage Day – Students and teachers may wear camouflage clothes to school. Morning announcements will be given about the theme of the day. A jar of red items will be displayed for students to vote how many are inside of it after the lunch time of each class. Students will add pictures and hang banner in the hall. All students will be given a red pencil with a drug free message.
Wednesday	Wear Red Day/"Bobcats are RED-dy To Grow Up Healthy and Drug Free!" - Morning announcements will be given about the theme. All classes may wear red from head to toe. Awards will be given to two students from each class wearing the most red. Pictures will be taken of students, classes, and staff wearing red. A popcorn party will be awarded to the three classes wearing the most red. A red bracelet with a drug free message will be given to each student.
Thursday	Pledge Day/"Bobcats Say: Don't Let Drugs Tie You Up. Put A Cap On Them!" Students and staff may wear ties or caps. A banner that says "I Love Myself By Being Drug Free!" will hang in the school foyer. All students may sign this banner and sign individual pledges. All students will be given a sticker with a drug free message. There will be an assembly for grades K-2 @ 2:00 p.m. and grades 3 – 5 @ 2:30 p.m.
Friday	Recognition Day/"Bobcats Show Your School Pride For A Bright Future!" Students and staff may wear their school spirit attire and/or sunglasses to school. Morning announcements will be given about the theme. All students will be given a bookmark with a drug free message. Students who have participated all week will receive a "prize" from the counselor on Friday, November 7th.
105	Mullendore Elementary	Vicki Webb, Contact Person
Monday	Decoration Day/"A Healthy ME Is Drug-Free!" - Students and staff may wear green or a Mullendore Elementary spirit shirt to show that Mullendore students pledge to "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" Every student will be given a red ribbon to wear all week to show their commitment to remain drug free. Every student will draw their handprint and sign their names as a pledge to be drug free. This hand print will be part of a heart shaped bulletin board created for the week. The counselor will partner with the P.E. teacher to teach drug awareness lessons to all students during one of their P.E. classes.
Tuesday	"Hats Off To Being Drug Free!" – Students and staff may wear hats to school to show their commitment to remain drug free. "We're raising our hats to a drug free life!"
Wednesday	"You Won't See Me Using Drugs!" – You will never see Mullendore students using drugs. Students and staff may dress in camouflage to celebrate it.
Thursday	"HAIRS To A Drug Free Life!" – Students and staff are invited to wear crazy hair to celebrate their commitment to lead a drug free life.
Friday	"We Give Drugs The Boot!" – Students and staff are encouraged to wear boots to honor their pledge to always say no to drugs.
106	Richland Elementary	Michelle Rollins, Contact Person
Monday	"Love Yourself. Be Drug Free." – Students and staff may wear red, white, blue or Richland Elementary spirit shirts to show that Richland Elementary pledges to be drug free. During lunch, students may sign their names, draw pictures, and write meaningful words on a banner as their pledge to be Drug Free. Drug fact will be presented on announcements. Red ribbons will be handed out in classrooms.
Tuesday	"Team Up Against Drugs!" – Students and staff may "team up" with friends and dress alike or wear their favorite team shirt. Drug fact will be presented on announcements.
Wednesday	"Decades And Decades Without Drugs!" – Students and staff may dress like their favorite decade – 50's, 60's, 70's, 80's, etc. Drug fact will be presented on announcements.

- Thursday "Saddle Up Against Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear western attire. Drug fact will be presented on announcements.
- Friday "I'm Drug Free Because I Want To Be.....!" – Students may dress up to demonstrate their career choice. Drug fact will be presented on announcements.

107 Smithfield Elementary

Jade Mallory, Contact Person

- Monday "Red Zone – No Drugs!" –Students and staff may wear red. Red ribbons will be distributed to all students and staff to wear all week with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" Teachers will pass out charms and chains to their students. Older students may attach their chain and charm to their planner and younger students may attach their chain and charm to their folders.
- Tuesday "Sock It To Drugs!" Students and staff may wear their crazy socks.
- Wednesday "Tie Down Drugs!" Students and staff may wear their crazy ties.
- Thursday "We Are Too Bright For Drugs!" Students and staff may wear neon and bright colors.
- Friday "We Dream Too Big For Drugs!" Students and staff may wear appropriate pajamas.

108 Snow Heights Elementary

Laura Wilson, Contact Person

- Monday "I MUSTACHE you not to do drugs!" - Students and staff will receive a sticker promoting a drug free life. Morning announcements will be presented stating the reason we observe Red Ribbon Week, and students will hear about the events planned for the week. A list of activities will be provided for teachers and students, as well as be included on the school's website.
- Tuesday "Hats Off To Being Drug Free – A sticker will be provided by the Snow Heights PTA. Students and staff may wear a hat. Morning announcements will be presented stating the reason we observe Red Ribbon Week.
- Wednesday "Wear Red Day!" –Red Ribbons provided by the district will be distributed to faculty and students with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" Morning announcements will be presented stating the reason we observe Red Ribbon Week.
- Thursday "Team Up Against Drugs –Stickers will be provided by the Snow Heights PTA. Students and staff may wear their favorite jersey or team shirt to promote a drug free life. Morning announcements will be presented stating the reason we observe Red Ribbon Week.
- Friday "These PAWS Don't Touch Drugs!" – Stickers will be provided by the Snow Heights PTA. Students and staff may wear Paw Spirit Wear. Friday, Wilson's World Assembly will review and promote a drug free life!

109 Major Cheney at South Birdville Elementary

Tammy Higgins, Contact Person

- Monday "Tip Your Hat To Be Drug Free!"- Students and staff may wear their favorite hat today. Red ribbons with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" will be distributed to all the students and staff to wear all week.
- Tuesday "Drugs Are Not My Style!" – Students and staff may wear red today.
- Wednesday "Exercise Your Right To Be Drug Free!" – Students and staff may wear sweats to school today.
- Thursday "Give Drugs The Boot!" - Students and staff may wear boots today.
- Friday "Team Up To Be Drug Free!" - Students and staff may wear their favorite team shirt today.

110 O. H. Stowe Elementary

Connie Donahue, Contact Person

- Monday Decoration Day/Red Ribbon Week Theme: "Love Yourself, Be Drug Free!" Students and staff will receive and wear BISD red ribbons with the Red Ribbon Week theme. Banners and information will be displayed in the main foyer and hallways. Morning announcements will be presented stating the reason we observe Red Ribbon Week, and students will hear about the events planned for the week. A list of activities will be provided for teachers and students, as well as be included on the school's website.
- Tuesday "Beavers Can't Hide That Drug Free Spirit!" – Students and staff may wear sports team shirts and jeans. PTA will provide themed bracelets.
- Wednesday "Beavers With Good Character Are Drug Free!" – Students and staff may wear attire representing favorite storybook characters. The class with the highest percentage of participation today earns a popcorn party on Friday. PTA will provide themed pledge stickers.
- Thursday "Dress For Success! Stay Drug Free!" It's Picture Day, so it's time to look your best! Students and staff will have class pictures taken. The High On Life group from HHS will perform at 2:15 in the cafeteria.
- Friday "Drug Free! Now That's The Spirit!" - Students and staff may wear spirit shirts and jeans. PTA will provide a popcorn party for the winners of the Character Day competition.

- 111 The Academy at West Birdville Maria Lopez, Contact Person
- Monday "Put A Cap On Drugs!" – There will be a can food drive to help the needy. Students and staff may wear hats to school. Everyone is encouraged to sign a banner in the cafeteria pledging to be drug free. Students and staff will receive red ribbons with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!"
- Tuesday "Stay In The Game And Sock It To Drugs!" - Students and staff may wear their favorite team shirt/jersey and crazy socks.
- Wednesday "Mustangs Are Red-y To Love Themselves And Be Drug Free!" - Students and staff may wear red to school. Students guess how many hot tamales are in the jar.
- Thursday "Mustangs Hide From Drugs!" - Students and staff may dress in camouflage.
- Friday "I'm Drug Free Because I Want To Be!" – Students and staff may dress up as Career Choice.
- 112 Holiday Heights Elementary Susan Henderson, Contact Person
- Monday Wear Red Day - Students and staff will be encouraged to wear red from head to toe to show their support of being drug free. Red ribbons will be passed out to students and staff to wear with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!"
- Tuesday "Be A 'Jean-ious'! Keep Your Mind Clear Of Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear jeans, showing their "smarts" to stay away from drugs.
- Wednesday "Exercise Your Mind!" – All students and staff will be encouraged to wear warm up/running suits or appropriate exercise wear to show they can run away from drugs and exercise their minds instead. Students will say the Red Ribbon Pledge during the morning announcements.
- Thursday "You Won't See Me Do Drugs!" – You won't see any Huskies using drugs. Students and staff may dress in camouflage to show they can hide from drugs.
- Friday "Black Out Drugs!" Students and staff will wear all black to show they can black out drugs.
- 113 Watauga Elementary Shera Valamides, Contact Person
- Monday Decoration Day/"Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" – PTA members will work together to decorate school grounds with Red Ribbon Week decorations. Students and staff will be given red ribbons provided by the district. Students and staff are encouraged to wear ribbons all week. A Red Ribbon message will be made each day this week on morning announcements.
- Tuesday Pledge Day – The Red Ribbon Pledge will be read during morning announcements. All students may recite the pledge in their classrooms. Students in 5th grade will sign and cut out red hands with pledge on it to be displayed in hallway.
- Wednesday Wear Red Day - "We Are RED-y To be Drug Free!" - Students and staff are encouraged to wear red from head to toe.
- Thursday "Give Drugs The Slip!" Students and staff may wear their favorite slippers.
- Friday "Team Up Against Drugs!" - Students and staff may wear their favorite ball team shirt or college shirt.
- 114 Grace Hardeman Elementary Kelly Simmons, Contact Person
- Monday Decoration Day/"It's OK To Be A NERD!" – Students and staff may dress up like a nerd, to support a drug free lifestyle. Staff and students will receive and wear red ribbons with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" Red ribbons will decorate the trees and doors.
- Tuesday Reach Out Day/"Be A Hero, Don't Do Drugs!"– Students and staff may dress up in their favorite super hero shirt.
- Wednesday Wear RED Day - Students and staff may wear red to pledge that they will live a drug free life style. Haltom High School's High On Life will perform for 5th graders during their P.E. time.
- Thursday Pledge Day/"Sock It To Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear their favorite crazy socks. Students will recite the Drug Free Pledge in the morning during the announcements. Each grade level will sign a banner to pledge to be drug free.
- Friday Recognition Day/"Tackle Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear their favorite team jersey.
- 115 W. A. Porter Elementary Shannon Bruce, Contact Person
- Monday Decoration Day/"Love Yourself, Be Drug Free!" – Second grade students and PTA volunteers will decorate school grounds with red ribbons and other decorations. Red ribbons will be distributed to all students and staff. Throughout the week a jar full of red items will be displayed. Students may guess the amount of items. The closest guess gets the jar of items to share with his/her class on Friday. Marquee will display theme. To kick off the week, students and staff will "Sock It To Drugs!" and wear crazy socks.

Tuesday	Wear Red Day – Students and staff may wear red from head to toe. Grade level pictures will be taken of all those who participate by wearing red. Fifth grade students and kindergarten students will pair up and participate in cooperative activity with the promise to stay drug free.
Wednesday	Reach Out Day – Fourth grade students will write a letter to a student from another school emphasizing their plan to stay drug free. First and third grade students will make something special to be displayed at area businesses. Drug awareness information will be sent home to all parents. Also, it is “Hats Off To A Drug Free Life!” Students will wear their Science Hats.
Thursday	Pledge Day – The Red Ribbon Pledge will be read during morning announcements. All students may recite the pledge in their classrooms. Each student will pledge and sign his/her name on a red heart. The hearts of all students will be put on a drug free banner and will be displayed in the hallway.
Friday	Recognition Day - Students will participate in the annual “Twist and Shout, Drugs Are Out!” celebration. Pictures will be taken to recognize those who, through their participation, show they have pledged to be drug free. Also, the winner of the jar guess contest will be announced.

116 The Academy at Carrie F. Thomas Joan Heffner, Contact Person

Monday	“Sock It To Drugs To Be Drug Free!” Students and staff may wear their favorite crazy socks today. Red ribbons will be distributed to all students and staff with the theme “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!”
Tuesday	"Inside Out Or Upside Down, I Am Drug Free!" - Students and staff may wear their shirts inside out or upside down.
Wednesday	“Exercise Your Right To Be Drug Free!” - Students and staff may wear sweats to school today.
Thursday	"Silly Hair Frees Me To Be Drug Free!" – Students and staff may do silly things to their hair today.
Friday	"Team Up Against Drugs!" - Students and staff may wear their favorite team shirt today.

117 Foster Village Elementary Kim Anderson, Contact Person

Monday	“Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” – Students will receive red ribbons to wear all week with the Red Ribbon Week theme. Announcements will be made during each day to reinforce our Drug Free Commitment. Students will also sign the drug free banners in the cafeteria.
Tuesday	“Hats Off To Being Drug Free!” –Students and staff may wear hats to school to show their commitment to remain drug free.
Wednesday	“We Are RED-y To Be Drug Free!” – Students and staff may wear red to show Red Ribbon Week support
Thursday	“Team Up Against Drugs!” – Students and staff may wear their favorite ball team shirt or college shirt.
Friday	We SPOOK Drugs Away! – Halloween Shirts/BLACK OUT

118 North Ridge Elementary Sherri Noel, Contact Person

Monday	"Sock It To Drugs!" and “Shade Out Drugs!” – Students and staff are encouraged to wear crazy socks and sunshades to support Red Ribbon Week. All students and staff will receive a red ribbon to wear for the week with the theme “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” Drug free facts will be read during morning announcements. The marquee will display the Red Ribbon Week theme “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!”
Tuesday	"You Don't See Me Doing Drugs!" - Students and staff are encouraged to wear camo to support Red Ribbon Week. Drug free facts will be read during morning announcements.
Wednesday	“I ‘Heart’ Myself!” - Students and staff are encouraged to wear clothes with hearts (or cut out hearts and place them on clothes) or wear the color red to support Red Ribbon Week. Drug free facts will be read during morning announcements.
Thursday	"Team Up Against Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear their favorite team jersey, uniform or color to show their commitment to stay drug free. Drug free facts will be read during morning announcements.
Friday	“ ‘Orange’ You Glad I Don’t Do Drugs!” - Students and staff are encouraged to wear orange and black colors to support Red Ribbon Week. Drug free facts will be read during morning announcements.

- 119 John D. Spicer Elementary Suzanne Smith, Contact Person
- Monday “My Character Counts...I’m Drug Free!” – All K-5 students receive “My Character Counts...I’m Drug Free!” bookmarks from the PTA. The PTA will decorate the school with RED. Also, there will be a Community Awareness Project where we take Red Ribbon Week treats/posters to Spicer-area businesses. They will pass out the goodies to their clientele to show support for a Drug-Free Lifestyle.
- Tuesday “United We Stand For A Drug-Free Land!” – Students and staff may wear red, white and/or blue and other Patriotic clothing. All students receive “United We Stand Against Drugs and Bullying!” sparkle pencil provided by the PTA.
- Wednesday “We Are Red-dy To Read Day!” National Red Day– All students and staff are invited to wear RED from head to toe today. All students and staff receive red ribbons with the theme “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” and stickers. Around 1:30-3:10 p.m. there will be a book distribution in the cafeteria for all children.
- Thursday “I’m Too Bright For Drugs!” Students and staff may wear neon and bright colors today! K-5 students receive “I’m Too Bright For Drugs!” stickers from the PTA. The Red Ribbon Week Pledge will be read during the morning announcements. There will be a K-5 Haltom High School High On Life Assembly in the gym.
- Friday “Say BOO To Drugs!”– Students and staff may wear black. Pre-Kindergarten students receive “Drugs Are No Treat!” glow-in-the-dark bags and other Red Ribbon Week treats.
- 120 Green Valley Elementary Jeanna Koerner, Contact Person
- Monday Picture Day - “I ‘Mustache’ You Not To Use Drugs!” – Students will receive mustaches. Class Pictures will be taken at the photo booth though the P.E. classes. Red Ribbon Week information will be read on announcements.
- Tuesday Backward Day - “I’ve got your back! Stop Bullying!” All scholars and staff may wear their clothes backwards. Red Ribbon Week information will be read on announcements.
- Wednesday Red Day - “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” – Scholars and staff will be encouraged to wear red clothing. They will also be given red ribbons with today’s theme. Students will make pledges on heart cut-outs to hang on each classroom door. Red Ribbon Week information will be read on the announcements.
- Thursday Pajama Day - “Dream Big About Your Future!” – Scholars and staff will be encouraged to wear their favorite pajamas (no form fitting pj’s please). Fourth grade scholars will write a letter to a W.A. Porter scholar emphasizing their plan to stay drug free. Red Ribbon Week information will be read on the announcements.
- Friday Orange Day – “Orange You Glad I’m Drug Free!” Scholars and staff will be encouraged to wear orange clothing or their Halloween shirt. Cuties oranges will be passed out. Red Ribbon Week information will be read on the announcements.
- 121 Walker Creek Elementary Dee Ann Knight, Contact Person
- Monday- Red Ribbon Week activities will occur through teacher classroom activities.
- Friday School-wide visuals will reinforce Red Ribbon Week.
- Monday “A Hug And A Howl Day!” – Students and staff may wear scarves that “hug their necks.” Students and staff bring their best huggable behavior. Coyotes will have a campus wide “hug fest.” Students and staff will hug others and say, “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” Coyotes will be encouraged to utilize positive self-talk – “howl” – as a tool to promote good self-esteem throughout their life. The day’s focus will be discussed on the morning announcements. The Coyote Counselor, Ms. Knight, will read Hug a Bug by Eileen Spinelli during all lunches.
- Tuesday “Knock The Socks Off Drugs!” Students and staff may wear fun and crazy socks to remind themselves that Coyotes “Knock The Socks Off Drugs!” Coyotes will be informed about good drugs and bad drugs. They will be able to discuss making good choices in life. The day’s focus will be discussed on the announcements.
- Wednesday “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” Red Ribbon Day/Wear All Red – Students and staff will wear all red clothing. They will receive and wear the 2014 RED RIBBON. Coyotes will learn why it’s important to love themselves and practice that skill. They will write “Why They Are Lovable” on a red construction paper heart and wear it throughout the day. The day’s focus will be discussed on the morning announcements. Special Vertical Activity (TBA): Fifth Grade/Smithfield Middle School.
- Thursday “Education Stomps Out Drug Use!” Students and staff will wear college shirts and boots. Coyotes will be instructed on the concept of lifelong learning. They will be able to discuss the importance of education and training. The day's focus will be discussed on the morning announcements.

Friday "Love Yourself And Have A Storybook Life!" Students and staff will wear their favorite storybook character costume. Coyotes will understand that they have the power to "write their own story." They will be able to discuss the importance of remaining drug free throughout their life. The day's focus will be discussed on the morning announcements.

041 Haltom Middle School

Lannette Fraser, Contact Person

Monday Red Day - "The Best Me Is Drug Free!" – Students and staff may wear red to show their support for Red Ribbon Week. Red Ribbons with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" will be given to students and staff. During announcements, "5 Things I Would Like To Do Instead Of Drugs!" will be presented by STUCCO.

Tuesday Neon Day - "My Future Is Bright, No Drugs Insight!" – Students and staff may wear Neon colors. During announcements, "5 Things I Would Like To Do Instead Of Drugs!" will be presented by STUCCO.

Wednesday Mustache Day - "I Mustache You Not To Do Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear a Mustache. During announcements, "5 Things I Would Like To Do Instead Of Drugs!" will be presented by STUCCO.

Thursday Pink Day - "No Drugs, No Cancers!" – Students and staff may wear their pink clothes to school. During announcements, "5 Things I Would Like To Do Instead Of Drugs!" will be presented by STUCCO.

Friday Nerd Day - "We're To Smart For Drugs!" - Students and staff may dress like a Nerd. During announcements, "5 Things I Would Like To Do Instead Of Drugs!" will be presented by STUCCO.

042 North Richland Middle

Ann Newhouse, Contact Person

All Week Red Ribbon Week will be announced during the morning announcements, and drug/alcohol facts will be shared on TV announcements throughout the campus. Red ribbons will be passed out for all students and staff to wear for the week with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" There will be a pledge board in the cafeteria for students to sign all week. Students who sign the pledge board will also sign a red "link". Links will be made into a chain and displayed in the cafeteria. Teachers will be encouraged to work with students and decorate classroom doors (windows in portable buildings) around the theme of "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" All participating teachers will receive three Jean Day Coupons.

Monday Knock the Socks Off Drugs: wear crazy socks

Tuesday Follow Your Dreams, Not Drugs: pajama pants, no slippers, within BISD dress code; no onesies allowed; short pajama bottoms must be no more than 4" above the knee

Wednesday We are Red-y to be Drug Free: wear red; students wearing the most red attire at each lunch table will go to the front of the cafeteria and a winner will be chosen from the finalists as the "Most Red-y" and will win an ice cream.

Thursday Slam Dunk, Drugs are Junk: sports jersey or other sports apparel

Friday Say "Boo" to Drugs: Halloween Day – students wear costumes within BISD dress code; weapons, hats, and all other prohibited items must be left at home

043 Richland Middle

Lynn Poston, Contact Person

Monday "Red Out Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear red. Gabe Salazar will be the guest speaker from 1:45-2:45 p.m. Red Ribbons from the district with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" will be passed out to students and staff.

Tuesday "Sock It To Drugs!" - Students and staff may wear their craziest socks.

Wednesday "Make Your Dreams Come True!" – Students and staff may dress up in anything Disney while still representing RMS/BISD dress code.

Thursday "We Are Too Bright For Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear Neon colors.

Friday "Team Up Against Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear their favorite sports jersey.

- 044 North Oaks Middle Chelsea Conkle, Contact Person
- Monday Pink Out North Oaks – “Fight Like A Girl Against Drugs!”– All students and staff will receive a red ribbon during second period with the theme “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” Each ribbon will have a number on it. We will have a drawing and the student that is wearing the ribbon with that number will get a prize. There will be an announcement discussing the effects of drug use. Also, there will be a dress-up competition for the students wearing the most pink. We will put the theme on the fence of the track and place ribbons on each teachers’ door.
- Tuesday Twin Day - “Friends Don’t Let Friends Do Drugs!” All students and staff are invited to dress like their friends/twins to show their support in not allowing friends to do drugs. There will be a dress-up competition. Also, there will be an announcement discussing the effects of drug use.
- Wednesday Nerd Day - “Mustangs Are Too Smart To Do Drugs!” – All students and staff are invited to dress as nerds to show their support in being drug free. There will be a dress-up competition. Also, there will be an announcement discussing the effects of drug use.
- Thursday Jersey Day - “Team Up Against Drugs!” – Students and staff are invited to dress like their friends/twins to show their support in not allowing friends to do drugs. There will be a dress-up competition. Also, there will be an announcement discussing the effects of drug use.
- Friday Wear Red - “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” – Students and staff are invited to wear red to pledge their commitment to be drug free. There will be a banner where students and staff can sign their name and take a written pledge to forever be drug free. Students will receive a lollipop/sticker for pledging to be drug free. Also, there will be an announcement discussing the effects of drug use.
- 045 Watauga Middle Matthew Wisch and Josh Huff, Contact People
- Monday Twin Day - “Pair Up And Say No To Drugs!” – Students and staff may pair up and wear twin clothing to show their support in not allowing friends to do drugs. All students and staff will receive red ribbons with the theme “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!”
- Tuesday Wear Red Day – “Red Out Drugs!” Students and staff may wear red attire to show their support for Red Ribbon Week.
- Wednesday Pajama Day - “Follow Your Dreams, Don’t Do Drugs!” – Students and staff may wear school appropriate pajama pants to show their decision to always follow their dreams and say no to drugs.
- Thursday Sports Day - “Team Up Against Drugs!” – Students and staff may wear their favorite sports team jersey to show their excitement to lead a drug free life.
- Friday Hat Day - “Hats Off To A Drug Free Life!” Students and staff may wear hats to school to show their commitment to remain drug free.
- 046 Smithfield Middle School Boyd Shannon, Contact Person
- Monday “I CAN Say No To Drugs And Put A CAP On Drugs!” – Students and staff are encouraged to bring canned goods for donation and also wear a hat of their choice. Red drug free ribbons with the theme “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!” will be distributed to students and staff.
- Tuesday “A Healthy ME Is Drug Free!” – Students and staff may wear red for Red Ribbon Week.
- Wednesday “Join The Team...Say NO To Drugs!” – Students and staff may wear jerseys or t-shirts for their favorite college/professional/recreational sports team.
- Thursday “Smithfield Middle School Raiders Give Drugs The Boot...Say No To Drugs!” Students and staff may wear boots and/or western wear.
- Friday “Friends Don’t Let Friends Do Drugs!” - Students and staff may dress up like a twin/friend.
- 047 North Ridge Middle Heather Penry, Contact Person
- Monday Tacky Tourist Day - “Passport Drugs!” Students and staff may wear tacky tourist attire. Red Ribbons will be distributed to students and staff with the theme “Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!”
- Tuesday Disney Day - “Magic Is Better Than Drugs!” - Students and staff may dress as a Disney character, according to North Ridge MS/BISD Dress Code.
- Wednesday Twin Day - “All Be Alike and Not Do Drugs!” – Students and staff may pair up and dress like twins.
- Thursday Tutu and Tie Day - “Dress Up, Don’t Mess Up!”– Students and staff may dress in an appropriate Tutu and/or Tie.
- Friday Pink Out Day - “Punk Out Drugs!” - Students and staff may wear pink.

001	Haltom High School	Trinh Cong and Marisa Milini, Contact People
Thursday	October 30 – High On Life members will perform a 20-minute drug free program to elementary schools and middle schools in the Haltom cluster.
Tuesday	January 20 - "Don't Fit In, Stand Out Against Drugs!" – Tacky Tourist Day. Students and staff may wear tacky clothes. Statistic about drug use will be read on the announcements. Red Ribbons with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" will be given to the students.
Wednesday	January 21 - "Because I Have A Future, I'm Teaming Up Against Drugs!" - Students and staff may wear their favorite college shirt to school. Statistic about drug use will be read on the announcements.
Thursday	January 22 - "Character Counts, Be Drug Free!" - Students and staff may dress up as a Disney character in appropriate attire. Statistic about drug use will be read during the announcements.
Friday	January 23 - "Orange Out Drugs!" – (This coordinates with the cheerleader spirit day for this day.) Students and staff may wear orange and red ribbons. Statistic about drug use will be read on the announcements.
002	Richland High School	Jocelyn Harty, Contact Person
Monday	"Love Your Team, Don't Do Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear their favorite sports team clothing. Chain link pledges done on red paper will be signed by students. STUCO will join the links together and put them up in the cafeteria. Red ribbons from the district with the drug free message "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" will be given to students and staff. Drug Facts will be presented on the announcements.
Tuesday	"Love Your Twin...Not Drugs!" - Students may pair up and dress like twins. Drug Facts will be presented on announcements.
Wednesday	"Love Red...Red Out Drugs!"/National Wear Red Day - Students and staff may wear red clothing. Drug Facts will be presented on announcements.
Thursday	"Love Your Enemy and Black Out The Trojans!" – Students and staff may wear all black. Drug Facts will be presented on announcements.
Friday	"Love Your School!"/REBEL PRIDE DAY – Students and staff may wear Rebel spirit wear. We will end the week by signing a banner to love yourself, not drugs. Drug Facts will be presented on announcements.
010	Birdville High School	Ann Cimino Blankenship, Contact Person
Monday	Crazy Hat Day - "Hats Off To Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear hats to school. Red ribbons with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" will be distributed to students and staff during StuCo 5 th period.
Tuesday	Minion Day - "A Million Reasons To Be Drug Free!" - Students and staff may dress as a minion. StuCo will decorate minions for classroom doors.
Wednesday	Wear Red Day - "RED-y To Be Drug Free!" – Students and staff may wear RED to promote a drug free lifestyle.
Thursday	Crazy Socks Day "Knock The Socks Off Of Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear crazy socks.
Friday	Dress Up Day - "Glow Out Drugs!" – Students and staff may wear white and neon clothes in conjunction with our regular dress up day and black light pep rally.
003	Shannon Learning Center	Joe LaFarge, Contact Person
Friday	The Student Advisory Board is making anti-drug message posters, etc., using the thematic nature of the day to give an anti-drug message. For example: Twin Day – "Do Not Get Double Vision Over Drugs!" They will hang posters for Red Ribbon Week. Also, the resident police officer (Officer Watkins) will present an "Under the Influence" simulator during the week.
Monday	Twin Day - "Do Not Get Double Vision Over Drugs!" - Red ribbons with the theme "Love Yourself. Be Drug Free!" will be given to students and staff. Students and staff may pair up and wear twin clothing.
Tuesday	Hippy Day - "Say Peace Out To Drugs!" – Students and Staff may wear hippie clothing to say no to drugs.
Wednesday	Disney Day - "Show Good Character By Being Drug Free!" – Students and staff may wear their favorite Disney character clothing to say no to drugs.
Thursday	Mixed Match Day - "Don't Get Mixed Up With Drugs!" - Students and staff may wear mixed match clothing.

Friday

Super Hero Day - "Super Me Is Drug Free!" – Students and staff may wear a super hero t-shirt or their favorite (professional or college) team jersey or t-shirt.