

UPCOMING OPPORTUNITIES

Featured Event

Original artwork by Haltom High School Student

Haltom High School Theatre Department

D.O.A.

November 6, 2020

7:00 p.m.

Frank Bigelow walks into a police station to report a murder: his own. He has been poisoned, and he only has hours left to live. Will he unravel the mystery before his time runs out?

Will the killer be brought to justice? An adaptation of the 1950s classic noir film, D.O.A. is a swiftly moving thriller that will keep you on the edge of your seat—at home!

Our production is a virtual offering. Buy your ticket now and get an email with the link to the Digital Program and the show airing November 6 at 7:00 p.m.

Online Credit Card sales at
<https://birdvilleisd.revtrak.net/>

Other Opportunities to see Fine Arts Productions

November 17 & 18: Birdville High School Class Plays

Studio Class presents “The Trojan Women” and Theatre 2 presents “Electra” at 7:00 p.m. in the Outdoor Courtyard behind the Birdville HS Cafeteria. Limited space available. Social distancing guidelines in place.

November 19: Haltom High School Advanced Musical Theatre

Advanced Musical Theatre presents “And the World Goes 'Round” online at 7:00 p.m. Free show with a donation option through Revtrak.

Social Media Performances

Middle Schools and High Schools

Fine Arts teachers are constantly engaging their students and showcasing the student’s work on their social media sites. Links to all Fine Arts social media sites can be found on the BISD Fine Arts website under their department pages.