

Connecting a computer to a mounted projector

---

- To connect your computer to a mounted projector, you will need a Video Splitter
- Verify that the splitter is plugged in.
- Disconnect your monitor from the white adaptor
- Use the custom VGA cable to connect your

- Note the video input will only accept the custom cable

- Use a standard VGA cable to connect one video out to the monitor
- You will need a second cable to connect the other video out to the wall plug

Connect a Computer to a Projector

