BISD Athletic Department

Mission Statement

"The Birdville Independent School District Athletic Department will provide courteous, accurate, professional service and support for its coaches, students, academic community, and stakeholders."

Overview

“Academic Excellence through Athletics”

The Birdville ISD, led by Superintendent Dr. Darrell Brown, believes that athletics exists to compliment the education of each individual that comes into contact with our programs.

The district's secondary schools are members of the University Interscholastic League, the governing body of athletics in Texas. Haltom High School and Richland High School compete at the 6A level, while Birdville High School competes at the 5A level. Seven middle schools in BISD participate in the sports of volleyball, football, basketball, cross-country, track, tennis and gymnastics.

Birdville ISD has enjoyed success in all sports:

In 2013, Haltom High School had 4 wrestlers advance to UIL State. Birdville High School had a gymnast and a wrestler advance to UIL State.
