www.shmoop.com--Lessons, drills, and practice tests for SAT, ACT, AP, EOC for Grade 9, and many other exams. Tests that would be timed are timed in this system. You may practice as a student on your own, or a teacher may create a class and give you the code to enter that class. Go to www.shmoop.com/signup/birdville Magic word: BISDRocks

College Board QuickStart: www.collegeboard.org Best way to access—Go to website and in search window, type My College QuickStart.

My College QuickStart is an online college and career planning kit available free of charge to all students who take the PSAT/NMSQT. It is powered by their responses to the test and provides personalized information that helps students take their next steps toward college:

- My Online Score Report—an enhanced score report that allows students to review each test question, their answers, and the correct answers with answer explanations
- My SAT Study Plan—a customized SAT study plan based on students' PSAT/NMSQT test performance, with hundreds of practice questions to help students improve their skills
- My Personality—a detailed personality test that helps students learn about themselves and discover majors and careers that fit their strengths and interests
- My Major & Career Matches—extensive information about majors and careers, including insights about what to expect and what courses to take now
- My College Matches—a starter list of colleges based on students' home state and indicated choice of major

Students can access their accounts starting in December when paper score reports are received. To sign in, students need:

- The access code printed on their PSAT/NMSQT score report. If you took the PSAT last year and cannot find your access code, please request your personal PSAT/NMSQT code from your counselor or the Advanced Academic Specialist.
- A College Board student account (Students who do not already have a College Board account will be prompted to create one. It typically takes less than two minutes to create a free account.)
